FLOYD COUNTY, IN,
CEMETERY LISTS

Some of this material was copied from information loaned to us by Mrs. Arthur Payne, Genealogist. Nov. 1977

Where possible, credit has been given to person who copied the gravestones. See information at top of each cemetery listing.

Compiled by Ruth Ann Kramer
1976 -

October, 1978

PLEASE NOTE:

Any patron who discovers an error, or has additional information, please write the information on a separate sheet, along with name and address of patron, and date correction was made, and attach to proper page with a paper clip. We would also like to have year and month the cemetery reading was done.

We also encourage anyone to volunteer to read the graves at any cemetery for which we still do not have grave listings. Please check with attendant at the desk to be sure the information is needed.

Thank you.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In 1976 I made a second copy of the 1933 Floyd Co. Cemetery Map. In doing so, I realized a large number of cemeteries were not included in the three books which contain listings for Floyd County. I also found reference to some DAR 1933 listings which we did not have.

I contacted Mrs. Elizabeth Payne, who had compiled the previous books, and asked her if she knew of any other available records. She said she had some transcriptions which she had made, and also some 1933 listings, in the form of Miss Grace Sloan's original notebooks. She then offered to donate Miss Sloan's notebooks to the Library, and offered her own transcripts to us for photocopying. This was done.

At the same time, I contacted the Indiana State Library for a list of their holdings, and they sent photocopies of those we needed.

By comparing the various listings, I was able to locate duplications which had occurred because of several names used for the same cemetery. The Floyd Co. maps of 1859 and 1882, which show landowners, were invaluable. By comparing them to our 1933 Cemetery Map, modern landowner maps, and also comparing them to our list of names of cemeteries for which we had no record, I could unravel many unknown locations. Many cemeteries are called by (a) person or persons buried there; (b) name of farm in 1800's on which it is located; (c) name of farm in 1933 on which it is located; and (d) name of current owner. This has resulted in a number of duplications. I have consulted with Mrs. Payne and others in trying to settle these conflicts.

Some of the 1933 grave listings are alphabetical, rather than by cemetery rows, and some only give year of birth and/or death. Sometimes a later listing includes month and day of death, but by that time many previously listed graves are no longer legible. This is the reason for some cemeteries having duplicate listings. (It also gives alternative interpretations of almost-obliterated dates and names.)

During 1978, some information was given to us by various patrons, the major one being Mr. Claudius Daily, of New Albany. He has generously permitted us to copy many of his listings, and has also researched cemeteries in person, especially Franklin Township.

Mrs. Catherine Summers has also given us copies of some cemetery listings which she had collected, and also gathered additional information for us.

We also want to acknowledge help from Mr. & Mrs. Ron Moser, Mrs. Ethel York, Mr. Nick Bush, and many others who have contributed valuable information.

Miss Sloan's original notebooks (2 small black looseleaf binders) are kept in the Indiana History Room Scrapbook Drawer. Listings from which this book were copied are also kept in the Indiana Room. Ask the attendant for these if you wish to double-check an entry.

ON MONDAY FOR WILLIAM WHALEN

11-13-1933

Aged Man Found Dead In Corn Field

Last rites for William H. Whalen, 75, Bennettsville, who was found dead of exposure early Saturday morning on the Budd Road, southwest of New Albany were held at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the George Shrader Funeral Chapel, East Oak street, New Albany. The Rev. Golden A. Smith, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated. Burial was in the cemetery on the Grant Line Road.

Mr. Whalen was found dead early Saturday morning in a corn field on the Joseph Turner farm, two miles southwest of New Albany on the Budd Road.

The body, unidentified for several hours, was discovered by Joseph Rodewig and James Huber, farmers. Dr. E. P. Schoen, Acting Coroner, examined the body.

After the Coroner's examination the body was moved to the Shrader Chapel, East Oak Street, and the man's identity was not known until 10:30 o'clock when, through a receipt found in the clothing, connections were made with John Werner, Bennettsville, with whom Whalen made his home, and positive identification was established. According to friends Whalen wandered away from his home some time Friday.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Anna Rogers of Joplin, Mo., and a cousin, Joseph Whalen of Bennettsville.

ROSE HILL PUBLIC SCHOOL

"We made a visit to Rose Hill public school and called on each of the eight rooms. We heard a number of recitations, singing and other exercises, and feel pleased to report the condition of the schools very creditable to teachers and pupils alike. The average attendance in the different rooms is as follows: Miss Hemming, 36; Prof. Nahstoll, 75; Miss Annie Hobbs, 52; Prof. Goodwin, 22; Miss Lou Laws, 31; Wm. Lee, 54; Mrs. O. S. Hopkins, 58; Miss Mollie Small, 54; Miss Bettie Colvin, 55; Mrs. Emma Cole, 52; Mrs. Robison, 31. The German recitations deserve especial mention."

...d Man Found Dead In Corn Field

...ces for William H. Whalen, ..., Bennettsville, who was found ... of exposure early Saturday morning on the Budd Road, southeast of New Albany were held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the George ... Funeral Chapel, East Oak Street, New Albany. The Rev. Gordon ..., pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated. Burial was in the cemetery on the ... Road.

Mr. Whalen was found dead early Saturday morning in a corn field on the Joseph Turner farm, two miles southeast of New Albany on the Budd Road.

The body, unidentified for several hours, was discovered by Joseph Hodges and James Maher, farmers. Dr. ... Kleeman, Acting Coroner, examined the body.

After the Coroner's examination the body was moved to the Shrader ..., East Oak Street, and the man's identity was not known until ... o'clock when, through a receipt found in the clothing, connections were made with John Werner, Bennettsville, with whom Whalen made his home, and positive identification was established. According to friends Whalen wandered away from his home some time Friday.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Anna ... of Joplin, Mo., and a cousin, ... Hasten of Bennettsville.

#71 LEWIS CEMETERY **

NEW ALBANY TOWNSHIP

Located on Green Valley Road at Spickert Knobs Rd. in Sec. 22 in a thicket by the new overpass along Green Valley Road just down the north side of the overpass between land belonging to Gene Swift and the Convalescent Center. Jesse Jacques owned it and took care of it. This information obtained from Miss Sloan's notebook.

Naomi Wisehart Brown interviewed Mrs. Maude Jacques, widow of Jesse, on April 4, 1982. She is 92 years of age but alert and interesting. She stated there were some people named Mitchell buried there, and a Revolutionary War soldier, but she could not recall his name. A Jim Lewis said he wanted to be buried there, but probably never was.

Mrs. Brown said she lived on Green Valley Road after 1940, and a family named John B. Newton lived on the property. Clyde Pope bought it before the nursing home and expressway were built.

Miss Sloan's notes stated Charles Helbig said he thought his grandfather's name was Valentine Helbig, and he raised a boy named Mitchell. McBrides and Mitchells were buried there according to Jesse Jacques.

Mrs. Brown found 3 small footstones and about 4 other broken stones. The only legible information was as follows:

Sarah,
Wife of Val. Helbig
b. June 27, 1847
d. April 23, 1891

Broken stone
Aug. ---
d. Sept. 12, 1878

James W. Lewis - Sarah McBride May 9, 1875
Sarah Lewis - V. Helbig Nov. 21, 1882
James M. Lewis - Mary E. Stirr June 8, 1898

Mr. Walter Kiser, local historian, said workers on I-265 threw stones around, per Mr. Pope's father, who owned it at the time. (Feb. 1979)

#115 McKINDRY CHAPEL **

NEW ALBANY TOWNSHIP

Located two miles south of New Albany on River Rd. S.E. corner of Sec. 15. 1859 Map shows location of church.

History of Ohio Falls Counties, p. 251

"In the southern part of the township there is but one church outside the city of New Albany; this is the Methodist Episcopal church, known as McKindry Chapel, located two miles south of the town on River Rd. .... The Methodists erected their present building just prior to the war (i.e. Civil War) A colored man named Wilson, one of the early settlers in the neighborhood, was one of the first members of this church, and made a gift of the land upon which the old building stood. ... Present membership about fifty." (1882)

Mr. Walter Kiser said 30 souls buried here, but church has now disappeared. (1979)

We do not have a list of burials, but we do have microfilmed copy of church records. See also VF Churches-- McKindree Chapel.

In June, 1952, I went to the Old Scott Graveyard which is on a hillside near New Albany, Indiana. This is the first public cemetery of this town, it was located on a farm owned by two brothers, Elijah and Silas D. Scott.

This cemetery has long been neglected and is grown up in brush and trees and as far as I could learn, there is no record of it at all in New Albany or elsewhere.

In 1924, my great uncle, Clarence Edward Clark, first told me of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller, with their son and his wife having been buried at this place. Needless to say, I went there to locate their graves.

In inspecting the gravestones, I found the names of two soldiers, which I am sure will .....(unreadable).

I spent about four hours copying the names and dates from all the stones I could find or get near enough to read.

Am taking the liberty of sending a copy of this data at this time.

Very truly yours,

(signed) Frederica Clark Stoner

G pf 922.201 F645, No. 4.

Am sorry indeed to have been so long getting this mailed to you, the delay was caused by the prolonged illness of my father and his passing.

My father was Robert Hoyd Clark, who married Sarah Lee Wade in Clark County, Indiana.

My grandfather was Charles Wesley Clark, who married Anne Scott in Floyd County, Indiana, January 1, 1868.

My great grandfather was John Wesley Clark, Jr., who married Rebecca Miller in Floyd County, Indiana, August 28, 1843.

My great, great grandfather was Jacob Miller, who married Anna Willcoxon in Harrison County, Indiana, December 20, 1812.

#34 SCOTT CEMETERY ' **

NEW ALBANY TOWNSHIP

In Sec. 15 on top of a hill about ¼ mile from Hausfeldt Lane near Green Valley Rd. It is behind the farm of Boyd and Wilbur Smith (1973). Originally there were some 250 graves but only 75 to 100 stones now remain, according to Mrs. Arthur Payne who copied some of the stones that year, assisted by Lt. Col. Llewellyn R. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson.

Her listing was combined with a complete listing taken in 1980 by Nick Bush, 207 Greenlawn, N.A. and in 1978 a partial listing by Stephanie Hottell, 4110 Reas Lane, N.A.

(Von Allman Cem.)

NEW ALBANY TOWNSHIP

West side of Eagle Lane and N. of Ind. 62, according to Miss Sloan's records.

(See also Zurschmiède Cemetery in same area).

Mr. Daily, 922 Hildreth St. New Albany, searched this area in April 1979 and in 1980. Mr. Carl Futter, a resident, showed him where an old cemetery had been. Did not know the name, but broken stones were lying on the ground. No names or dates. Located on sw corner of Eagle Lane and Arnold Court.

Mrs. Ellie Daily (Mrs Sam) stated that Von Allmans were buried here and also Daily/Eismanns. Mrs. Eisman married an Underhill in the last century; so Underhills could be buried here too. Mrs. Ellie Daily was Mrs. Eisman's sister.

Deed for cemetery is in Court House. See Index for 977.2 H62.

#66 HANCOCK CEMETERY **

FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP

In Sec. 18 (or 19) on Budd Rd. across from McCarthy Knob. Rd. and Old Hancock-Wheeler Rd., which went up the creek. The cemetery has been bull-dozed, according to the present owner, Mr. Castile.

John B. Hancock lived here. Edwin Budd says Gilbert Budd * probably buried here, and probably also his first wife. (Perhaps others among his five wives , since this was Gilbert Budd's home place.)

This property also belonged to Smith Reasor Budd.

Information given by Mr. Charles Drake, 1910 Ekin Ave. N.A. May 1980. (Mr. Drake is married to Virginia Dailey). He has done much research on the Budd and Dailey families. Mr. Drake said the cemetery had large and well-made stones at one time.

#79 NEWMAN CEMETERY **

FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP

Located on Old River Road, State Rt. 111, approximately 100 yards west of #111,between 5 Mile Lane and 7 Mile Lane, near Arrowhead Lake. Approach along private driveway to lake (faded sign at roadside advertising lake), and small house with trailer behind.

The cemetery is 50 yards N. of the house in a tobacco field. The farmer who lives in the next house to the north says he plows around the gravestones each year.

The cemetery is slightly raised above the surrounding fields and is covered with weeds. One gravestone is lying on top of the mound, and a second stone is largely buried. Ground was frozen, so it was not possible to dig. Farmer said before the graves were bulldozed, there were not more than two graves present.

The one visible gravestone, a substantial block of finely carved stone:

Newman, Vachel D.
b. Sept. 17, 1820
d. July 18, 1888

Researched by Michael Stagg, 1712 N. Junette St. Tacoma, Wa 98406 December 22, 1983.

Name of owner of farm not known, but her mother, Mrs. Lillie Ewing lives directly opposite on Rt. 111.

Newmans owned land in Sec. 32 on 1859 map of Floyd Co.

#56 CROME CEMETERY
(private)

Georgetown Township

Reference: Cemeteries in Floyd County, Indiana, pages ii,xi, and Cemeteries with First Priority to be Listed, is located in the Floyd County Public Library, Indiana Room. (Unlisted cemetery)

Located by: 12 December 1980, Charles Lyn Lockman (reporting) b. 1940, residing on Quarry Road northeast of Edwardsville in Section 31 of Georgetown Township, (address) R.R.#2 Box 485-L, New Albany, Indiana 47150. Member No. 1 of the S.I.G.S., and also the Floyd County Historical Society.

Location: Located in Georgetown Township in the NW¼ of the SW¼ of the SE¼ of the NE¼ of Section 9, T.3 S., R.5 E., Floyd County, Indiana, at about elevation 865,which is denoted as a cemetery location on the USGS 7.5' Quadrangle Map. UTM (Universal Transverse Mericator) Grid System location is Zone 15, Easting 591000 m, Northing 4235725 m.

General Location and Description: The CROME CEMETERY is on high ground on a southwest slope about 2,000' east of Lazy Creek, 2,000' south of Old Corydon Road, 1,000' west of Old Salem Road, east of Waltz Road, and about 1,500' southwest of #32 Old Salem Church(torn down and was log church structure) Cemetery, recorded. The landowner has a Used Car Parts Business which comes within 50' of this cemetery. There is barbed wire fencing just 20' south of this cemetery limits with a powerline seen beyond that. The CROME CEMETERY is hard to find when close to it because of broomsage, brush, sawbriers, and trees around and upon it. Once you're upon the cemetery it is very defined to limits for it has red cedar stumps on each corner, with periwinkle covering the entire floor. Other red cedars, persimmon, and sassifrass trees of small diameter surround the area plus being upon it. Old-field succession appears to be in progress here. The CROME CEMETERY is about 30' x 50',location of 34 burials w/ possible many more burials in this cemetery.

Property Owner: A.J. Marking, R.R.#4, Georgetown, Indiana. He has owned this farm since 1945. When he moved there the same year an older fellow claiming to have relatives in that cemetery visited the cemetery. In 1952 a Boy Scout Troop tryed to locate and register the cemetery,but failed to locate it. I'm the only one since that time that has come to see or locate the cemetery. The landowner has plans for a sub-division upon the lands including the cemetery being on a planned road for that development. You must get permission to visit this cemetery.

Stone Readings are as follows: Note-burials are reported as found,and not by numerical order,or maybe not in same roll.

Stone #1- JOHN WELCH/DIED/Dec. 26, 1871/AGED/83 yrs.2mos./d.23Ds/...../ (epitah) He is not dead but sleepth. He was born in 1788. No footstone.

Stone #2-No headstone. Footstone reads E.W. This stone is north of Stone #1 (JOHN WELCH).

Burial #3-No headstone or footstone. The depression is long(adult). This burial is south of Stone #1(JOHN WELCH).

Burial #4-No headstone or footstone. The depression is long(adult). This burial is south of Stone #1(JOHN WELCH), and south of Burial #3, which does not have a marker.

Stone #5-Headstone is a rough fieldstone of native material,no markings.

This stone is north of Stone #2 footstone(E.W.).

Burial #6- In Memory/of/Margie Welch/Born in 1824/Died in 1828. At death this little girl was 4 years old. Footstone reads M.W.

Stone #7-Rough fieldstone that reads H&F. Located north of and adjacent to Stone #6.

Stone #8-Rough fieldstone that reads H&F. Located north of and adjacent to Stone #7.

Burial #9-No marker. There is a depression. This grave appears to be the norther limits of the CROWE CEMETERY.

Stone #10-IN/MEMORY OF/MIKE CROWE/was born January/ the (flaked portion of this stone)/and/Departed his life in triumph/of faith/AND DIED JANUARY/ the 9 , 1849 age 87. His year of birth was either 1762 or 1761 depending on the stonemaker's information, because he lacked one day being another year old when he died. Footstone matched this beautiful set of stone which reads M. (flaked off letter on the stone which should have read C.).This is the burial for which the cemetery is named after. He was probabily the first settler to these parts.

Stone #11- MARIAH JANE/(rose figure)/Wife of/I. JONES/Died/Sept. 24, 1813/ Aged 21 yrs./2 mos. 15 D's/═════. The writing was on the west side of stone, however the depression was on the east side. No footstone. This lady was born in 1782.

Burial #12- Depression only, no stone.

Burial #13- Depression only, no stone.

Stone #14- SACRED/TO THE MEMORY/of/ELIZABETH/ANN DONN/daughter of/ICK and MARGARET/HANGAR, Was born/Dec. the 6, 1818 and/died May (flaked off area of lettering) 1842/Aged 24 yrs. 5/mths. 25 days. Footstone matched the headstone and reads E.D. This stone is beautiful.

Burial #15- Depression, no stone. South of Stone #10 on the same line.

Burial #16- Depression, no stone. South of Stone #10 and north of Burial #15(between them).

Stone #17- FRANCIS M./(hand pointing up)/SON OF/B.F. & C.E. HUNTER/BORN/ AUG. 17, 1858 ,/DIED/Sept. 10, 1860/(epitah)He like the flower has passed away. This boy was 2 years old at death. No footstone. This stone was under heavy periwinkle floor and I almost missed it.

Stone #18- This stone is a figurine of a tree stump. It is broken off near its base.

Stone #19-Rough fieldstone, no lettering. Located north of Stone #18.

Burial #20- Depression only, located north of Stone #19.

Stone #21- Rough fieldstone for the footstone only.

#9 DUNCAN CEMETERY **

GEORGETOWN TOWNSHIP

From old grave stones on the former Duncan Farm, on what is now the A. F. Dant farm (formerly the Glenn Potter place). These stones are under a tree in what, for some time, has been used for pasture. These dates and names were copied from these stones by Mayme S. Peters, Georgetown, Indiana. (Sec. 34). Duncan land in n.w. quarter of Sec. 34. 1859 map at Henriot Rd. and Frank Ott Road.

There were just the three stones, all dislodged from their former positions, two lying on the ground and the third propped against the tree. See also Index to 977.2 H62.

Finding Fischer/also known as Ed Knable Cemetery:

The map lists this as just west of Luther Road below Spring Meadow (north of Willis). In fact it is not visible from Luther Road, and many residents along Luther Road do not know about it. Mr. Ed Knable (6016 Willis Road), to whom I was finally directed, let me walk through his land (less than 1 mile) to the cemetery, which is under a maple tree near a stock pond. It is in poor shape. Mr. Knable does not seem to like the name "Ed Knable Cemetery", incidentally. The cemetery is just barely visible from the turnaround at the end of Spring Meadow, but only if you know what to look for, and I don't know if it would be OK to walk there that way.

#63 FISHER CEMETERY
(private)

According to Charles Lockman 9/27/2000, this cemetery has been destroyed/stones thrown in weeds, etc.

Georgetown Township

Reference: Cemeteries in Floyd County, Indiana, pages ii,xi, and Cemeteries with First Priority to be listed, located in the Floyd County Public Library, Indiana Room. (Unlisted Cemetery)

Located By: 14 November 1980, Charles Lyn Lockman b. 1940(reporting), Charles Lyn Lockman,JR. b. 1969 (my son), and Charles William Lockman b. 1912 (my father), all residing on Quarry Road northeast of Edwardsville in Section 31 of Georgetown Township,. The reportings' address is R.R.#2 Box 485-L, New Albany, Indiana. Member of the S.I.G.S.#1 and also the Floyd County Historical Society.

Location: Located in Georgtown Township in the SW¼ of the SW¼ of the NW¼ of the NW¼ of Section 36, T.2 S., R.5 E.,Floyd County, Indiana,Georgetown Quadrangle, at elevation 860. UTM location is Zone 15, Easting 594530m., Northing 4239300m. (Universal Transverse Mercator)

General Location and Description: This cemetery is located on high ground on a north slope just 1,200' west of Luther Road, 1,400' north of Willis Road, 1,600' northeast of the intersection of Willis Road with Edwardsville-Galena Road, and 400' northeast of the highest land elevated Public Service high tension powerline structure. The Fisher cemetery is in an active pastured land, and southwest of a ¼ acre pond. Near the intersection of the Edwardsville-Galena Road with Willis Road the lane entrance can be visually seen as to the way the Fisher's got to their farm, by the trail and old fence line wondering over the hillside towards that old farmstead. Azimuth compass readings are as follows: (a) 310° towards an old homestead site, now torn down, known by the present landowner as the old Fisher place. The present landowner has recovered an old stone jar , dated 1889, from farming that old homestead site, which was from an old winery in New Albany. (b) 37° to the present landowner's house(new). (c) 189° to the highest high tension powerline structure. Large towering rose bushes cover the southeast portion of the cemetery, periwinkle the southwest, and fesque-orchard grasses cover the major portion. The Fisher cemetery is about 30'x 40' with perimeter stones marking the boundary. Broken stones and deep depression of the graves show pastured practices upon it. Broken headstones are stacked against the two red cedar trees location in the center.

Property Owner: June Knable,(Luther Road) R.R.#2, New Albany,Indiana, owns the farmstead, which was owned by his father, Ed Knable. He is interested in helping or letting someone clean and fence the the cemetery. Permission can be obtained from the owner to see the cemetery, and asking is advised.

Stone Readings are as follows:

Stone #1- MARY JANE/wife of/Jacob N. Conrad/died/Apr. 18, 1849/Aged 20 yrs.,/3 mos. & 3 days/______ /Also/Infant daughter of /J.N. & M.J. Conrad/ ______ /(epitah) this lovely bud so fresh &/fair/called home by early/doom/just may show how/sweet a flower/by paradise could bloom. This stone was broken near its' base and found against the red cedar trees. Headstone measures 15" wide x 40½" high at the longest break-point x 1 3/4" thick. Footstone reads M J C with measurement being 7 5/8" wide x 15¼" high x 2" thick which is still in place,. located 42° of the #3 stone,report herein.

Stone #2- JACOB FISHER/DIED/Feb. 18, 1848/AGED/13 yrs & 7 mos. This stone is broken at the base and against the cedar trees.The headstone measurement is 14" wide x 36" high at the longest break-point x 1 3/4" thick. Footstone is in place 20° from the #3 stone,which reads J F.

Stone #3- EVELINE T./MOTTWEILER/BORN/JAN. 24, 1841/DIED/FEB. 8, 1873 (located on the west side of the four-faced square stone.) (Stonemaker's name on the south side) A.J. WHEELER . (epitah on the east side) A precious one from us/has gone/A place ye loved is/stilled/A place is vacant in/our home/Which never will be filled. Headstone measures (top) 9 3/4" square x 22" high, (secondary base) 14" wide x 5½"high x 14". and (base) 17¼" square x 10" high. A footstone reads E.T.M. that measures 4¼" wide x 7" high x 2" thick. All azimuth compass readings were taken from this stone because it was definitely the landmark in place.

Stone #4- NANCY E./(dove)/Daughter of/JACOB & JANE/FISHER/DIED/Apr. 18, 1837/Aged 1 Year./4 Mo's., 8d./_______._______ . The headstone is against the cedar trees and broken in two places. This stone is the prettiest in the cemetery. It measures 12 1/8" wide x 37" high at the longest breakage x 1 3/4" thick. The footstone is against the cedars, also, which read N.E.F. and measures 5" wide x 14¼" high x 2" thick.

Stone #5- FRANK HATFIELD/Co. K/93 IND. INF. This is a Civil War Vet. stone with lettering within the shield elblem of the United States. The stone is very hard to get to being under 3 or 4 rose bushes. The stone is broken off its' base, and measures 12" wide x 22" high at the longest breakage x 4 1/8" thick. A check with the Floyd County Public Library, Index to Civil War Veterans(incomplete) notes the following:'Hatfield, Frank Private/93rd Regiment Company K/date of muster-August 29, 1862/Died at Louisville, Kentucky-/April 6, 1864.'

Stone #6- Only a possible burial located 5 feet south of the #3 Mottweiler stone, make of rough fieldstone at head and feet locations.

Stone #7- Only a possible burial located 6 feet southeast of #3 Mottweiler stone, make of rough fieldstone at head and feet locations.

Others Unmarked-Judging from the size of the cemetery, which has a definite outline of fieldstone on it's perimeters , the entire area could have several unmarked burials, therein .

Old Map:The Map of Floyd County, Indiana, dated A.D. 1859, places the land ownership of Jane Fisher having 71 acres. Other landowners nearby at the period were D. Shirley, M. Yenowine,W.Lidikey, I. Flickner, John Rice, M.J. Hatfield, and M.A. Fisher.

Historic Sites: Indiana Historic Sites & Structures Inventory Interim Report, dated March 1978, pages 40 and 41, lists only one structure of historic origin nearby- #162, Yenawine-Nichols-Collins House , 5118 State Road #64, which is located about 3,100'southeast of the Fisher Cemetery. An old English-type barn is located about 1,200' southwest of the cemetery of ca 1800; not listed in that report. The barn belongs to the present landowner, June Knable, and earlier his father owned it, Ed Knable,in the early to middle 1900's.

Cemetery Notes by the Locator: Color 35mm photo's were taken, and sketches of each stone.Data recovery on some stones were clarified by use of graphite.

Georgetown Township

Reference: Cemeteries in Floyd County, Indiana, pages p.ii,xi, and page titled,'Cemeteries with First Priority to be listed', located in the Floyd County Public Library, Indiana Room. (Unlisted Cemetery)

Located by: 14 November 1980, Charles Lyn Lockman(reporting)b. 1940, residing on Quarry Road northeast of Edwardsville in Section 31 of Georgetown Township,(address) R.R.#2 Box 485-L, New Albany, Indiana. Member of the S.I.G.S.#1 , and also the Floyd County Historical Society.

Location: Located in Georgetown Township in the SW¼ of the NW¼ of the SE¼ of the NE¼ of Section 36, T. 2 S., R.5 E. (Georgetown Twp.) Floyd County, Indiana at about elevation 900. UTM(Universal Transverse Mercator) Grid System location is Zone 15, Easting 595800m., Northing 4239120m.

General Location and Description: This private cemetery is on high ground on a north slope just 650' north of Willis Road, 1,800' northeast of Willis Road intersection with West Knable Road, 650' norhtwest of I-64, and east about 300' of Lakeland Drive which is a recent built housing developement. The Hessing Cemetery can be seen from I-64. The cemetery is not fenced, and in an open sod-farm field containing large trees(5-6) around the immediate site. It has rubble collected by the farming operation upon it, with some periwinkle and orchard grasses upon it. Vandalizm and farming appears to have taken a toll on the cemetery, because stone are loose and broken and some missing. The Hessing Cemetery appears to have covered an area of about 30' x 30' according to visual remains of old cedar stumps, which probalily outlined the area at one time. Predominant trees remaining around the site are black walnut. During mid 1900's I've known this farm as the Old Charles Hunter farm. Azimuth compass readings are as follows:(a) 135° to the peak of the 910 to 915 elevation indicated on the Georgetown U.S.G.S. map. (b) 320° to sewage treatment plant for the Lakeland Drive housing developement. (c) 295° to an old barn, ca. 1800. The old Hunter house(torn down) was located west of the cemetery about 200'.

Property Owner: Charles O. Lee, 3340 Oleanda Avenue, Louisville,Kentucky, owns the property which at present is utilized as a sod-farm. The owner cleared off the cemetery site recently just after his purchase of the land. He is planting some fruit trees around the perimeter to help protect it.

Stone Readings are as Follows:

Stone #1- CATHARINE/DAUT. OF/A.&M. JOHNSON/AUG. 10, 1854/AGED 20YRS./ ________.________/(located on the west side of the stone). (South side of the same stone) MARY/WIFE OF/A. JOHNSON/BORN/MAR. 11, 1812/DIED/JAN. 30, 1895. (East side of the same stone) ALBERT/JOHNSON,/BORN/SEPT. 1, 1808/DIED/ APR. 2, 1888/________.________. This stone is 30" high x 15" square with base 14" high x 20" square. A footstone which says A.J. is east of the stone measurements are 9" high x 6" wide. A footstone which says CATHERINE JOHNSON located on the north side of this headstone, measurements are 19" high x 10¼" wide with base 14" wide.

Stone #2 - Base only measures 14" x 14" which doesn't have the upper headstone. This stone would appear to be the same style as Stone #1 . The base was located between Stone #1 and the footstone of CATHERINE JOHNSON. I searched the entire perimeter wooded areas for the headstone and asked the owner about the location, but couldn't be found.

#67 HESSING CEMETERY CONTINUED (page 2)

Other burials- By appearance the area probabily contains several burials, I estimate at 6 to 12 others possible. The site is recently cleared,which new dirt was placed over the area, depressions can not be seen .

Old Map: The Map of Floyd County, Indiana, dated A.D. 1859, places the 110 acre tractownership - J. Hessing, with neighbors J. Garot, J. Lush, John Lush, M.Denny, F. Holmes, M. Lusher,M.A. Fisher, and C. Gilchrist at that time.

Historic Sites: Indiana Historic Sites & Structures Inventory Interim Report, dated March 1978, pages 40 and 41, lists only one historic structure nearby, #162, Yenawine-Nichols-Collins House, which is located about 2,000' northeast of the Hessing Cemetery. Known historic structures related to this farmstead were torn down earlier.

Veterans: ALBERT JOHNSON, a burial therein, would have been about 54 years old at the time of the Civil War period. The Floyd County Public Library, Index to Civil War Veterans in Floyd County was checked, and the following veterans from Edwardsville could have been his sons, or his relatives: (1) Johnson, Benjamin/Wagoner/144th Regiment,Company E/date of juster-January 26, 1865/Mustered out August 5, 1865/Edwardsville. (2) Johnson, John M./ Private/93rd Regiment, Company K/ date of muster-August 29, 1862/Mustered out November 10, 1865/Edwardsville. (3) Johnson,John W.,Private/144th Regiment, Company E/date of muster-January 28, 1865/Mustered out August 5,1865/ Edwardsville.

Notes from the Locator: Colored 35mm photo's were taken, sketches of the stones, and stone markings were made ledgible by applying graphite to letters. Several persons located near the cemetery of any age to remember something about the area did not know of the cemetery or of anything about the Johnson people.

#111 HOLMES CEMETERY **

GEORGETOWN TOWNSHIP

On Quarry Road on West Side. Holmes Property on 1859 Map in Sec. 31.

There were 20 graves with an iron fence. Destroyed in 1970's.

Information Researched by Mr. Charles Lockman, Quarry Road, New Albany. Feb. 1981

#69 KEAFER CEMETERY **

GEORGETOWN TOWNSHIP

On Edwardsville/Galena Road, Sec. 26

Destroyed by construction of new house (Betty Parris)
Described in New Albany Tribune in 1952.

Information researched by Mr. Charles L. Lockman, Quarry Rd.
New Albany, Feb. 1981.

This stone is about 24" tall but top appeared to be broken off. The top might have shown name of wife of Solomon Loughmiller (lucretia Wininger Loughmiller) since there was a footstone nearby with initials L.L.

A stone was found buried in the ground with only about 5 or 6 inches showing. After being dug up, it was about 25" tall with beautiful carving on it (leaves) but no names or inscription visible. Perhaps another piece buried even deeper?

Many other broken stones, some with initials:

#110- LUSHER CEMETERY
(private)

Georgetown Township

Reference: Cemeteries in Floyd County, Indiana, book located in the Floyd County Public Library, Indiana Room. This cemetery was not list- or known of in that listing. (Unlisted Cemetery)

Located By: 27 December 1980. Charles Lyn Lockman(reporting) b. 1940, residing on Quarry Road northeast of Edwardsville in Section of Georgetown Township, (address) R.R.#2 Box 485-L, New Albany, Indiana 47150. Member No. 1 of the S.I.G.S., and the Floyd County Historical Society.

Location: Located in Georgetown Township in the SW$\frac{1}{4}$,SE$\frac{1}{4}$,NE$\frac{1}{4}$, of the SE$\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 36, T.2 S., R.5E. (Georgetown Quad.), Floyd County, Indiana, at about elevation 895 m.s.l. UTM (Universal Transverse Mercator) Grid System location is Zone 15, Easting 595940m,Northing 4238560m.

General Location: This private cemetery is on high ground on a east slope about 600' west of (East) Willis Road, 1,200' southwest of the West Rouck Road intersection with Willis Road, 700' southeast of I-64, and 1,100' northwest of Quarry Road intersection with Willis Road. A new farm pond has been recently built just 10' or so from this cemetery which is southwest of the site. A PSI(Public Service Indiana) high tension powerline structure is 222° from the only in-place stone (Azimuth compass reading), 68° from the owner's ca. 1800 barn, 99° to my barn (Charles Lyn Lockman)-ca. 1800 Old English Barn(Holmes), and 105° from my 5' diameter white oak tree. The LUSHER CEMETERY is heavily pastured at the present, which cleans the ground upon it. A large shag-bark hickory tree stands just 30' to the northeast of this site. The farm has always been known to me as the Willis Farm. Frank Willis(late 70' to 80's) son to the early 1900 landowner still lives on a small portion of this farm. He says there has been 7 to 8 stones there during his time, but pasturing and vandilism has taken its' tow on this cemetery and he himself has carried stones away to ditches , that have been broken,or destroyed. Couldn't find them now per his thoughts or my research of the land .

Property Owner: Samuel C. Lockhart, R.R.#2 Box 483-D,Willis Road, New Albany, Indiana 47150. The landowner is very respectful of the site and would agree to have it fenced and repaired. You must get permission to see this cemetery.

Stone Readings are as Follows:

Stone #1- MICHAEL/HUSBAND OF/MARY M. LUSHER/(flaked off area)looks like A.P.(flaked off area) 1879/AGED/72YR.(flaked off)M(flaked off)D(broken area of stone thereafter)/ broken base portion of this very heavy stone, size is 17" wide x 6" thick x 16" high at the longest broken point. Footstone reads M.L., size is 4 3/4" wide x 8 3/8" high which was lying against the headstone base. Michael Lusher was born in 1808. I think while looking at the Tunnel Hill Cemetery listing his wife is buried at Tunnel Hill.

Stone #2- No readible stone. Base only in place which suggests that the headstone was very large. Base of the headstone has a stonemaker's mark of Balier . The location of this base is south of the Stone #1. Size of top part is 6½" high x 25" wide x with aslot in top 9½"wide x 2 5/8" wide, with a large base below that.(very pretty base)

Others unmarked- As stated previous, 7 to 8 others possible, I think the construction of the pond destroyed burials on this site.

#110 LUSHER CEMETERY CONTINUED (page 2)

Old Maps: The old map of Floyd County, Indiana, dated 1859 , places the landowner as M. Lusher, 110 acres, while neighbors were F. Holmes, M.A. Fisher, M. Yenowine, J. Hessing, and M. Grossliphen. The map of 1882, places the ownership as M. Lusher.

Veterans: Lusher was not a Civil War Veteran according to the Index to Civil War Veterans, (incomplete) located in the Floyd County Public Library.

Historic Sites: Indiana Historic Sites & Structures Inventory Interim Report, Floyd County, Indiana, dated March 1978, lists only one structure located a long distance to the southwest of this cemetery, the #162- Yenawine-Nichols-Collins House . The Lusher-Lockhart ca. 1800 German style barn is just 200' northeast of the site, the J. Jennings - Gilmore Old-English barn ca. 1800 northeast of the site about 1,000' away, and the Holmes-Lockman Old-English barn ca. 1800 era southeast of the site about 1,000' away not listed in that report. Additionally, the Grossliphen-Warmouth log house ca. 1800 is northeast of the site about 1,200' away which is not on the Interim Report above.

Notes from the Locator: Colored 35mm photo's were taken of this site, and a sketch of the stone was made.

George (1857->1870) and ________ ( ) (18__-1__) Hand are interred in the ________ Cemetery, ________ Co., __.

Following Sarah's death in 1861, Thomas Hand remarried. On Dec. 17, 1863, Floyd Co., IN, he married Margaret Nicholson, b. ___. __, 1835, ________ Co., IN. To her fell the task of completing what Sarah could not do--rear her family to maturity. Margaret became the stepmother to Sarah's six children ranging from age sixteen down to age six. She, too, would make a contribution to our Meriwether heritage, in the manner Sarah had earlier.

Thomas and Margaret had at least three children, all born in Indiana: Clara (Carrie), b. 1866; Annie, b. Mar. 1870; and Charles, b. 1874. The family lived in the Northern Commons between the Charlestown Road and the city limits of New Albany.[284]

The Meriwether Burying Place is located near the site of the John Meriwether pioneer homestead on the Edwardsville-Galena Road, just off the Old Vincennes Road (Buffalo Trace) (NE 1/4 of the NW 1/4, Sec 23, T2, R5), Georgetown Township, Floyd Co., IN. From that wilderness home John dutifully projected the Virginia heritage of his Meriwether ancestors. But, he never could have visualized a housing subdivision rising to foul the graves of his beloved family in his "sacred" quarter acre.

286. NN.122, 124, 139-140, 143a, 209, 236-238 & 254-257. It is said that the Meriwether Burying Place once contained 25-50 graves. This seems reasonable.

John and Mary may have had a requirement for and began using a portion of their Indiana land as a burying place as early as 1817 when they arrived in this Hoosier wilderness. Certainly, the difficulties of such a wilderness settlement may have resulted in losses of family members or accompanying friends or relatives. Initially, his slaves may also have been with him.

For a period of at least 65 years one could expect to find members of the Meriwether family, connections by marriage including guardianships, close neighbors, and tenants interred there. Considering the known low survival rate of infants in that period and the often catastrophic impact of epidemics, e.g. both Mary (Eversole) Meriwether and John M. Redfield, John's grandson, died of cholera, it is not unreasonable to believe that the cemetery contained upwards of 50 graves. As family members moved away, or became more involved in local community churches, memory of this family burial place apparently faded until it was no longer cared for and the area coveted by strangers.

Persons known or likely to be interred in the Meriwether Burying Place are:

(1) Mary Jane Meriwether (1811-1829)
(2) Virginia Meriwether (1813-1830) (stone once)
(3) Mary (Molly)(Bell) Meriwether (1777-1836)
(4) Richard Redfield, Jr. (1795/1800-1837/1840)
(5) Hugh P. Meriwether (1809-1844)
(6) Louisa Meriwether (twin) (1845-1845)
(7) Lucinda Meriwether (twin) (1845-1846)

(8) Mary Bell Meriwether (1848-1849)
(9) Mary (Eversole) Meriwether (1809-1851) (headstone)
(10) John M. Redfield (1849-1851) [date?]
(11) John M. Meriwether, Sr. (1774-1854)
(12) Elizabeth B. (Meriwether)(Redfield) Scott (1802->1860)
(13) Elizabeth (Eliza) Meriwether (1853-<1860)
(14) James Patrick Meriwether (1804-1882) (headstone)

...and others for whom we have found no record, but who logically would have been interred here.

287. The Meriwether Burying Place apparently was an established family cemetery by 1847 when John Meriwether strongly reserved it as a condition of his will. It must have been an active and well identified family cemetery as late as 1882 when James Patrick Meriwether was buried there and his family marked his grave with a headstone. Both he and his wife had appropriate headstones, although now broken and shattered. It seems reasonable that John Meriwether and his wife also had headstones as he stated in his will that his "funeral be conducted in a manner corresponding to my estate and condition in life." His station in life would appear to have supported such action.

Today the immediate area surrounding the unfenced and unmarked burying place is surrounded by a housing development next to a high school. Many of the field stones and other markers have been run over or otherwise displaced, probably by the construction project or cars turning in the area. A portion of the burying place has been fenced by a nearby home owner as his own, to serve as a backyard dog run. A number of the original stones appear to have been moved for convenience of lawn mowing.

Such is the respect our contemporary citizens and officials give an Indiana pioneer who tamed the earth where the desecraters now live. The aura of their actions illuminates and displays a shallowness of character, devoid of human, civilized sensitivities, and causes one to believe even more strongly in a judgment hereafter when their callousness will be rewarded.

292. Robert is probably buried in Louisa Co., VA near the old James Meriwether (1729-1801) home [Cloverfields?].

293. The compilers have found no information relating to the burial place of members of James Meriwether's family, however, our search has not been exhaustive. It would appear that our Virginia based cousins might be helpful in this regard.

#75 MONAHON CEMETERY
(private)

Georgetown Township

Reference: Cemeteries in Floyd County, Indiana, pages ii and xi, located in the Floyd County Public Library, Indiana Room. (Unlisted Cemetery)

Located By: 6 December 1980, Charles Lyn Lockman b. 1940(reporting), Charles Lyn Lockman, Jr. b. 1969 (my son), and Charles William Lockman b. 1912 (my father), all residing on Quarry Road northeast of Edwardsville in Section 31 of Georgetown Township. The reportings' address is R.R.#2 Box 485-L, New Albany, Indiana. Member of the S.I.G.S.#1, and also the Floyd County Historical Society.
Location: In Georgetown Twp. in the SW¼ of the SE¼ of the NE¼ of the NE¼ of Section 23, T.2 S., R.5 E.,Floyd County, Indiana, Georgetown Quadrangle, at elevation 830.UTM location-Zone 15,Easting 594250m,Northing 4242490m. (Universal Transverse Mercator)
General Location and Description: This private cemetery is on high ground on a north slope just 500' south of the Old Vincennes Road, and south of a small stream in a heavy-wooded area, with periwinkle ground cover. The cemetery has two(2) iron fenced areas having no gates, one being 8'x 12', and the other 4' x 8', consisting of burials outside the fences, with the cemetery comprising an area of about 50' x 50'. Azimuth compass readings are as follows: (a) 150° to a ca. 1800 barn. According to local informant and visual identifications of hewn logs near the drive to the barn, a ca. 1800 log cabin located directly behind and about 200' south of the present barn, had been torn down with in the last 10 years. This suggests an original home place site. (b) 40° to a ca. 1800 dog-trot style log house, presently not lived in, located on the north side of Old Vincennes Road. The house is weather-boarded over. The Edwardsville-Galena Road is south of the south. The Floyd Central High School is west and within seeing distance of the cemetery.

Property Owner: Earl Becht, R.R.#2 Box 446-B, New Albany, Indiana. His residence is northwest of the cemetery on the south side of Old Vincennes Road. Permission can be obtained from the owner to see the cemetery, and asking is advised.

Stone Readings are as Follows:

Stone #1- REBECCA/WIFE OF/D. SHIRLEY/BORN/NOV. 8, 1819/DIED/FEB. 8, 1900/(epitah) A faithful wife and mother dear/In sweet repose is sleeping here/Her painful loss we deeply feel/But God can all our sorrows heel./(stonemaker) BROWN/NEW ALBANY, IND. This stone is off its' base and leaning against an iron fence; the grave is badly sunken. No footstone. The headstone measured 14" wide x 36" high.

Stone #2- In Memory of/REBECA MONAHON/BORN/June 20, 1786/DIED/April 16, 1852/Aged 64 Yrs. 10 Mos. & 4 Days/______ /(epitah) Our mother here lies underground/The dearest friend we ever found/But through the Lord's unbounded love/We'll meet again in realms above. This headstone is broken off its' base, but the base was nearby. The headstone is 17" wide x 36" high at the longest broken length.

Stone #3- JOHN ANDREW JACKSON/son of/JACOB & NANCY BIERLY/Born March 8, 1864/DIED/Sept. 16, 1864/Aged 6 months & 9 Dys./(epitah) Suffer little children to come unto me,/and forbid them not, for such is the/Kingdom of Heaven. The headstone is 10½" wide x 22½" high. No footstone.

Stone #4- A footstone with the inscription J.A. J.B. on the same line. The stone is 5½" wide x 6¼" high and in place. No headstone, but suggests that other unidentified burials exists in the Monahon Cemetery.

Stone #5- No inscriptions on either headstone or footstone. These stones are native sandstone consisting of a soiled black texture and hand pecked. Headstone measures 21" wide x 12" high x 6" thick. The footstone measures 13" wide x 12" high x 7" thick. I think this the wife or husband of Stone #6, because the headstone is larger than #6.

Stone #6- Like Stone #5, matching quality, and same stonemaker. The headstone is 24½" wide x 23" high x 9" thick. Footstone is exactly the same dimensions as Stone #5's footstone. These two burials, #5 and #6 appear to be the first burials at this cemetery.

Stone #7- Iron fence around this one(1). JULIAN A./SHIRLEY/BORN/Oct. 22, 1846/DIED/Apr. 29, 1876/______ /(epitah) Dearest Daughter we will try/ to meet you happy when we die/Trusting it may be our lot/That we will never be forgot./(stonemaker) J. VERNIA & CO./N. ALBANY. Footstone reads J.A.S.

Stone #8- Iron fence around this which includes #8,#9, and #10(3), no gate. WILLIAM /WHITLOCK/BORN/Nov. 5, 1795/DIED/Jan. 6, 1875/______ / (stonemaker) Brown. Headstone is off its' base and leaning against the fence. Footstone reads W.W.

Stone #9-Within the same iron fence as #8 and #10. IN/MEMORY/of/JACOB M. WHITLOCK/Son of William and/Julia Ann Whitlock/Who departed this life/ August 3rd 1843/Aged 7 years 1 month and 3 weeks/====/(epitah) This languishing head is at rest/It's thinking and aching are o'er/This quiet moveable breast/Is heared by affliction no more. Footstone reads J.M.W.

Stone #10-Within the iron fence with #8 and #9 burials. JULIA/Wife of/ WILLIAM/WHITLOCK/BORN/Oct. 18, 1813/DIED/Dec. 26, 1874/_____. Headstone is off the base but leaning against the iron fence. Footstone reads J.W.

Others unmarked- Three depressions in this cemetery have no markers (11, 12, and 13). Large trees have grown on the burials. The cemetery is not noticable from Old Vincennes Road, because brush and weeds hide it before coming directly upon it.

Old Map: The Map of Floyd County, Indiana, dated A.D. 1859, places the land in ownership of either J. Motling, H. Hequit, or J. Monahon. Other landowners nearby at the period were N. Grimm, J. Merriwether, H. Rainey, J.B.Vermey, and N. Speckert.

Historic Sites: Indiana Historic Sites & Structures Inventory Interim Report, dated March 1978, pages 40 and 41, lists two historic structures southwest of this cemetery as #145-Relander Farm, Relander Road; Federal house c. 1830, and #155- Relander-Eve Farm, Edwardsville-Galena Road; Carpenter/Builder Cottage, c. 1875, and Vernacular barn, c. 1825 which is located nearest the cemetery. Persons occupying #154 and #155, according to research, did not use this cemetery.

Veterans: There are no suggestions in the field that veterans exist in this cemetery. The Floyd County Library's , Index to Civil War Veterans(not complete) was checked, and revealed no veterans in the cemetery.

Cemetery Notes by the Locator: Color 35mm photo's were taken. Data recovery on some stones were clarified, by using graphite.

Georgetown Township

Reference: Cemeteries in Floyd County, Indiana, pages ii, xi, and Cemeteries with First Priority to be Listed, which is located in the Floyd County Public Library, Indiana Room. (Unlisted Cemetery)

Located By: 6 December 1980. Charles Lyn Lockman(reporting)b. 1940, residing on Quarry Road northeast of Edwardsville in Section 31 of Georgetown Twp.,(address) R.R.#2 Box 485-L, New Albany, Indiana. Member No. 1 of the S.I.G.S., and also the Floyd County Historical Soc.

Location: Georgetown Twp. in the NW¼ of the SE¼ of the NW¼ of the SE¼ of the Section 10, T.5 S., R. 3 S., Floyd County, Indiana at about elevation 845 m.s.l. (USGS Quad. Map). UTM (Universal Transverse Mercator) Grid System location is Zone 15, Easting 592400m, Northing 4235300m.

General Location and Description: Very hard to find because of the remoteness from related structures, is located on a north slope about 2,200' from the intersection of Ind. Hwy. #62 and 11, also the landowner's house, 3,400' from the Old Salem Road, 3,300' south of the Old Corydon (Ridge) Road. Azimuth compass readings: (1) 99° to landowner's house. (2) 230° to an old barn unidentified in the field because of distance to it. (3) 35° to the SRR radio tower. Additionally, it is adjacent to a east-west farm wire-woven fence, and south of a small stream and powerline. The land the cemetery is upon is unattended or pasturelands. There is only one readible stone, but at least 7-8 other burials exist there. A sugar maple tree stands southwest of the south limits, and a red cedar tree at the eastern limits, with size about 20' x 40' . Five years or so this land was owned and known as the Roscoe Nance Farm(deceased). Alma Nance, his widow, presently resides in Clarksville, Indiana, she says this is the only stone she has known there.

Property Owner: Mary Hall, R.R.#1, Lanesville, Indiana. A lawn orieniment business is located upon their land. Visitation to the cemetery should be coordinated with the ownar.

Stone Readings are as follows:

Stone #1- Wm. J. NANCE/OUR/FATHER/BORN/NOV. 4, 1804/DIED/FEB. 16, 1858/____.____/(epitah) NOT LOST, BUT GONE BEFORE/(stonemaker) LEE & WHEELER. The headstone size is 18¼" wide x 34" high, with a rope and tassel at each end skirting the outside limits. Footstone reads W.J.N. , size is 6½" x 10½". A red cedar stump of 2' dia. is left of the headstone.

Stone #2- Rough fieldstone located south of Stone #1 and about 7 spaces(graves) away.

Others Unmarked- I counted 7 or 8 depressions having know markers, but possible another line of burials exist.

Veterans: Nance was not a veteran according to the Index to Civil War Veterans, (incomplete) located in the Floyd County Public Library.

Old Maps: The maps of Floyd County, Indiana dated 1859 and 1882 places the landownership as Elizabeth Nance.

LOCATION MAP

#32. OLD SALEM CHURCH CEMETERY **

The cemetery is located on Old Salem Road, just south of Corydon Ridge Road where it becomes Baylor-Wissman Road, between Edwardsville and Georgetown, Indiana. The land surrounding the cemetery is owned by Francis Dee McCauley, Corydon Ridge Road, and probably the cemetery itself. They have some documents relating to the cemetery.

Teresa Dunlap, Lanesville, has a painting of the church that was given to her by Edna Routh. Now in New Albany Public Library - Indiana Room.

There are several graves that have broken stones, some so badly damaged that they cannot be read. Several stones have been turned over and are not at their original place. The oldest grave with a stone is Taylor McKinney, who died in December, 1842. The newest or latest grave with a stone is Katherine Goodman, who died in 1940.

The land was donated by Mr. Joseph Routh (1903-1883), who is buried in the cemetery alongside his second wife, Mary (1812-1876). He also organized and helped build the log building to house the congregation. Copied 1980 by E. Keith Adam - see p.39

#113 WAGNER CEMETERY **
(private) Destroyed

Georgetown Township

Reference: Cemeteries in Floyd County, Indiana, located in the Floyd County Public Library, Indiana Room. Unnamed, not located, and unlisted cemetery.

Located by: 13 December 1980, Charles Lyn Lockman, (reporting)b. 1940, residing northeast of Edwardsville on Quarry Road in Section 31, Georgetown Township, (address) R.R.#2 Box 485-L, New Albany, Indiana 47150. Member No. 1 of the S.I.G.S., and also the Floyd County Historical Society.

Location: Georgetown Twp., in the NW¼ of the NE¼ of the NW¼ of the NW¼ of Section 1, T.3 S., R.5 E., Floyd County, Indiana, at about 900 on the Georgetown USGS Quadrangle. UTM (Universal Transverse Mercator) Grid System location is Zone 16, Easting 594880m., Northing 4237980m.

General Location and Description: Private cemetery located on a northwest slope about 40' south of the southwest corner of the Tunnel Hill Christian Church structure, about 25' of a concrete block dwelling(rental by the church), 10' east of two LP gas tanks owned by the church. The Wagner Cemetery is about 200' south of the intersection of the Old Georgetown Road with Tunnel Hill Road, southeast 250' of the Tunnel Hill Cemetery, 1,000' east of Yenowine Lane, and about 400' northwest of I-64 interchange with Indiana Hwy# 64. I've grown up in Edwardsville,while wandering and hiking, I have remembered this cemetery. I couldn't find anyone who knew anything about this cemetery,which included some older members of that church,and my mother, Laverne Hottell Lockman whom grew up in the vicinity of Duncan and Edwardsville. The Wagner Cemetery is in yard area of the rental area of the church. A japonica bush covers the foot area of this one burial, all other burials, if there,were not visible by depression or marker.

Property Owner: Tunnel Hill Christian Church, Old Georgetown Road at Edwardsville, New Albany, Indiana address.

Stone Reading is as follows:

Stone #1- MYRTLE ALMA/WAGNER/FEB. 15, 1887/MAR. 13, 1918. She was 31 years and 26 days old at death. This stone looks as new as 1970's, the modern pillow type stone, measuring 18" x 24".

Others unmarked- Possible other graves , but absence of depressions, ground cover,and markers do not suggest others.

Old Map: The Map of Floyd County, Indiana, dated A.D. 1859, places the ownership as D. Shirley, with other neighbors as A. Shirley, L. Lidikey,W. Lidikey, S. Davis,M. Yenowine,M. Lusher, and H.H. Edward. The 1882 map listed the ownership as Delilah Shirley.

Historic Sites: Indiana Historic Sites & Structures Inventory Interim Report, dated March 1978, pages 40 and 41 listed only one historic structure, #162, Yenawine-Nichols-Collins House, located at 5118 State Road #64, at least 1,0000' north of the Wagner Cemetery. Old School House No.4, known as the Grange Hall,use to stand across the road(north) in the early 1950's.

Cemetery Notes by the Locator: Its strange to note that the Tunnel Hill Cemetery existed across the road from this cemetery even at a much earlier time but this burial of 1918 was place were it is, unless there are earlier burials there but unmarked now. Color 35mm phots was taken and sketch.

#95 WALTS CEMETERY **
(BURGER)

GEORGETOWN TOWNSHIP

Located in S.1/2 N.E. qtr. of Section 5, Township 3S, Range 5E. This is on Walts Rd., south of Georgetown, Ind. One-half acre was set aside by Michael Burger to be used as a public burying ground. Although the cemetery is known as the Walts Cemetery, there is no evidence that there are any Walts buried there. James Burger sold the land to George W. Walts in 1855.

There are four stones that cannot be read, even by taking rubbings. Some we have found crumbled when we raked up the debris after we had it cleared. There are several creek stones standing upright that we are sure are headstones but they have no markings on them. PSB.

The land is now owned by Frank and Patricia Smith Butler. Listed by Patricia Smith Butler June, 1983.

#55 COFFMAN CEMETERY **

GREENVILLE TOWNSHIP

This inactive cemtery is located 2.3 miles north of U.S. 150, Sec. 28 on the Borden Road, to the right of Borden Rd. just before the Chapel Hill Road. The half-acre cemetery is now included in the property of Norman and Norma Veron and is enclosed by their fence. The Veron's take an interest in caring for the cemetery and they are, at this date, doing extensive repair work on the cast-iron fence located in the north corner.

Jane Coffman set aside this portion of land for this cemetery and also reserved the north section of it for her own use. (Court of Common Pleas, May term, dated June 15, 1867). Abraham Coffman, her husband, was buried there, but the only evidence of Jane's burial is a footstone with the initials J.C. The footstone is found in the cemetery next to a stone that has broken off at the top, omitting the name and many believe this to be it's proper location. (See entry for the son of R. and C. A. Coffman). See 977.2 H62 - p. 282-6.

#15 GARRISON (GARRETSON) CEMETERY **

GREENVILLE TOWNSHIP: (same as Lamb/Fife Cemetery, per Margaret Atchley)

Garrison Farm is now owned by Mrs. Frank Fife, a descendant. She lives in Galena (1968) and said she would go with us to this cemetery. Mrs. East said this is a very small cemetery at the Horace Williams Lane. (Taken from Miss Sloan's notebook).

According to 1859 map of Floyd Co., J. Garretson owned s.w. part of Sec. 9 in Greenville Twp.

GARRETSON BURYING GROUND

(same as Lamb/Fife Cemetery, per Margaret Atchley)

This cemetery holds the remains of Jacob Garretson, a Revolutionary War Soldier. At the time of listing this cemetery, his stone was not standing. It could have been knocked over and covered with vines and dirt. It was raining the day we were there and we did not take time to dig around.

There is room for quite a few more graves than have stones standing at this time. The plot is fenced in and is in a wooded area.

The farm on which this cemetery is situtated is still owned by descendents of Jacob Garretson. It is located just off the Featheringill Road southwest of Galena.

#~~115~~ GIRDNER CEMETERY **
(Gardner)

GREENVILLE TOWNSHIP

Off US 150 west of Greenville-Borden Rd. in Section 4, northwest corner.

Information given by Mrs. Elsie McKown, P.O. Box 7, Greenville In 47124 on June 23, 1981

Mrs. McKown reported that neighbors said there were two cemeteries on this property, which the 1859 map shows as owned by Gardner. (She said Girdner is the correct spelling).

One cemetery is near the spring and the other farther down the branch toward Coffman Creek (Jersey Creek). Nobody has ever tried to dig for more stones, altho some could be buried because it is so overgrown. A few broken stones on surface.

#73 McGLOTHIN CEMETERY **

Deeded By PARSENSAS HUFF 1839

GREENVILLE TOWNSHIP

North of Ernstberger Road and south of John Pectol Road in Section 16.

This cemetery was destroyed within the last 5 years. Information researched by Mr. Charles L. Lockman, Quarry Rd. New Albany. FEb. 1981.

There were about 15 readable stones before it was destroyed. Huffs and Englemans were buried here. Burials dated from 1700's (?) (births?) to 1860's.

It was reported that Samuel Stephen McGlothin was buried there in 1912. He was the father of Stanley McGlothin.

~~Should be Engleman~~
Per Deed

#74 McKOWN CEMETERY **

GREENVILLE TOWNSHIP:

In Sec. 6, NE corner, on Jack Warren's farm, 1/4 mile south of Greenville. H. McKown owned land in Section 6 on Bradford Rd. according to 1859 Plat map. See also: Index to 977.2 H62

Old resident thought Rev. War Soldier Andrew Ingram may have been buried there; per Miss Sloan's notebook. Also the Roop (or Reap) Cemetery is on Bradford-Galena Rod. per Miss Sloan's scrapbook #2, p. 39. (Sam Burrell Family Genealogy.) This could be McKown Cem. or possibly another one not listed.

Following information collected by Mrs. Elsie Mae McKown, Greenville, Ind. June 1, 1979. She reported that it was rather difficult to find these stones as the cemetery has been covered with undergrowth. Vandals ravaged the place and broke all the tombstones off at the base. As a result, they are imbedded in the ground and need to be dug out. According to the number of footstones, there must have been 20 or 25 more graves or stones to be located.

#38 ST. JOHN'S CEMETERY **

GREENVILLE TOWNSHIP

This cemetery is located in the Southwest Quarter of Section 18, Township 2S, Range 5E. It is on St. John's road off from old Highway 64 between Georgetown and Bryneville.

The church there was at one time St. John's Lutheran Church. The Indian Creek Baptist Church was organized there and after they built their own church, the old church building has been used by the Pentecostal Church. The building and grounds belong to the county. There are still a few burials in the cemetery.

The cemetery is well maintained but there are indications of numerous unmarked graves with some foundations of stones still visible.

It was listed by Bettie Kain and Anna Frederick, Rt. 3, Georgetown, IND, 47122, the 16th of June, 1983.

See also Bible & Cemetery Records, Vol. 1, p. 111 for additional listings.

#86 SEARS CEMETERY

GREENVILLE TOWNSHIP

South of Nadorf Road and W. of St. Johns Rd. in Sec. 12.
Sears are in Sec 13 on 1859 map

#41 TAYLOR **

"CHAPEL."

Located in Section 9; these tombstones inscriptions were taken from graves in the old abandoned cemetery known as 'Schrader's.' This old cemetery, given in 1828, by Amos Davis and his wife, Ruth, to the Methodist Episcopal Church, Greenville, Indiana.

The first records book in the New Albany Court House contains the old deed worded as follows: p.-3, Sept. 29, 1828.

"To Methodist Episcopal Church, Greenville, from Amos Davis and wife Ruth:

WD1 A on south line of NW1/4 2-2-5, NW1/4 of Sec. 9, 2 s of R5E of land sold at Jeff Bounds and (buildted); as follows to wit. Beginning at a stake 38 rods on the line from the S corner of said (-) thence N 12 rods, thence east 9 rods thence s 10 rods thence east 18 rods thence N 2 rods, thence east 4 rods to said Gr. section line thence with said line to the beginning containing 1 A of land. House woods and waterways and privileges thereto belonging unto them the said trustees and their successors in office forever in trust that they shall erect and build them a house of worship for use of the members of the N.E. Church in the United States of America. Isaac Miller, Joel Shields, Jacob Miller, Wilson Ryon, John Tailor. Trustees in trust for the use and purposes herein after mentioned."

About 1840 the cemetery was left and one started at Buttontown, later known as Maple Hill because water was found in graves. This present cemetery is about a mile west of the other. The old one is almost completely hidden from the road by woods, brush and myrtle. Quite a number of the old tombstones have been carried away. There are no buildings on the acre tho it is still fenced in on three sides from the road.

Copied from Indiana State Library Records G pf 977.201 F645, No. 1, Pt. 3.

Note: N.A. Tribune, 3/28/1951 calls it the 'lost' Greenville Cemetery, and that Capt. John Ford's family is buried there.

1859 map shows Davis owned NW corner of Section 9. See Index to 977.2 H62 (Taylor

Miss Carolynne L. Wendel
State Library
Indianapolis, Indiana

Dear Miss Wendel:

Your record of the Schrader Cemetery, Floyd county, Indiana shows Jane Stroud to be the daughter of Jesse Stroud. After a visit to the Cemetery I was sure your record is in error and it should be the wife of Jesse Stroud. Just now I am working on the settlement of the estate of Jesse Stroud and now have documentary evidence that Jane was the wife of Jesse Stroud.

Three commissioners were appointed by the Court to allot the Dower of Jane Stroud and in their report they said: "Agreeably to an order of the Circuit Court of Harrison County at their June term last past appointing the undersigned to allot to Jane Stroud Widow of Jesse Stroud deceased."

In a record of payments made to Jane Stroud.
" By amt. paid Jane Stroud, widow of Jesse Stroud decd. as part acct. $ 353.01"

The name of Davis Floyd appears several times in these records. As you know, some Indiana historians think Floyd Co. was named for him.

One of the appraisers of the personal property of Jesse Stroud, April 29, 1812, was James Windell.
While I notice the difference in the spelling I am wondering if he could be in your line. I know, as you too well know, that names are spelled many ways in past generations.

Just thought I should set the record straight. It might save some future searcher a lot of trouble.

Respectfully,

B. F. Taylor.

Ben F. Taylor.

#52 BROCK CEMETERY **

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP

This cemetery has several names. Also called Leptic-Hollowell-Zahn. See Book A, p. 118

Mrs. Clay York, 2807 Diana Dr. N.A., whose mother was Anna Hollowell Clark, states that a Leptic married a Brock, and this is another name for that cemetery. Also, a family of Brocks were murdered by the father, who then committed suicide, and they could be in unmarked graves in this cemetery.

Also known on Smith Cemetery, since it was once the Elmer Smith Farm. In Sec. 25. (Brocks were in Sec. 36 adjoining)

August, 1978.

#70--A LAMB CEMETERY

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP:

Benjamin Lamb of Floyd County, 1/2 acre square in northwest quarter of Section 5, Township 2 (Lafayette), Range 6E, to enclose all the graves on said lot at this time for use and benefit of the neighborhood for a place of deposit for interring their dead forever. (Deed Book V., December 29, 1848, p. 139). Copies from Miss Sloan's notebook.

North of Adam Haller Road, take Scottsville Road to Dethy Road, then turn right to Haller Road. Per Mrs. Payne's Genealogy of Harmon Family, p. 1.

Jack Baker and Grace Sloan could not find anything.

See also Ohio Falls, 977.2 H62, pgs. 151, 153, 219, 302, 566

See also #70 -- Lamb Cemetery - Greenville Township

Dec. 2, 1993

Margaret Atchley said that she visted this cemetery in March, 1993. She pieced together a broken stone — inscription appeared to be L. Lamb (perhaps Lottie Lamb) - date on the stone was 1840(?).

LAMB CEMETERY

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP,

Benjamin Lamb of Floyd County, 1/2 acre square in northwest quarter of Section 5, Township 2 (Lafayette), Range 5E, to enclose all the graves on said lot at this time for use and benefit of the neighborhood for a place of deposit for interring their dead forever. (Deed Book Y, December 29, 1840, p. 193). Copies from Miss Sloan's notebook.

North of Adam Keller Road, take Scottsville Road to Lemby Road. Then turn right to Keller Road. For Mrs. Payne's Genealogy of Herman Family, R. 1.

Jack Baker and Grace Sloan could not find anything.

#72 McCUTCHEN CEMTERY **

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP:

West of Scottsville Road and North of Fertig Creek Road. McCutchen owned land in Section 1, northeast corner on 1859 map.

From:
History of the Ohio Falls Counties, Vol. II, p. 306

Upon the advent of the first settlers, there was an Indian Cemetery a short distance from the village of Scottsville, in the northwestern part of the township....the road which enters Scottsville from the south once passed through this Indian graveyard, but has since been turned to one side. The house of Mr. Alexander McCutchen stands exactly in the midst of these ancient graves, and a gentleman named Stoner lives near. Upon the advent of the first settlers, these graves were plainly marked, and consisted of small hillocks arranged in rows, much after the manner of white burials. The ground has since been plowed over, and the graves have entirely disappeared from sight.

#77 MT. ST. FRANCIS CEMETERY

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP:

Southwest of U.S. 150 in Section 13 at the Mt. St. Francis Seminary.
There are no plans to copy since only Priests and Brothers are buried there.

#40 ST. MARY'S OF THE KNOBS CEMETERY *

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP:

Located on St. Mary's Road at Campion Road, the old cemetery is in front of the church, and the new cemetery is about 1/2 mile west on Martin Road.

First Catholic Church in Floyd County, established 1823.

#87 SHRADER CEMETERY **

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP

This cemetery is located in Section 1 on Little Indian Creek, east of Stiller Road and north of Fertig Creek Road, on the present property of Clyde and Elsie Fenwick* who have lived there since 1920. The original house on this property burned down and the present one was built by Mr. Shrader's son Henry. Elsie's father had bought the place from Tom Conley, who had bought it from the Shraders. A Mr. Pleasant Lang had also owned it, before the Shraders. (Lang is shown as owner on 1859 map.)

Mrs. Fenwick said that most of the tombstones were made of sandstone and have all disappeared , usually by bulldozing. Some of the stones may have been used in the foundations of some of the farm buildings.

The cemetery was located behind their barn, on a hill northwest of it, which overlooks the whole valley. Most of the stones were of the Adams family and were dated in the 1800's. No stones remaining with any inscriptions.

Mrs. Fenwick mentioned another cemetery approximate ¼ mile NE of their farm that had several stones that she remembered seeing from the road. This cemetery is on the property now owned by Franklin Atkins. We searched, but no stones were found. (Atkins owned property in Section 1 on 1859 map).

The only cemetery reported in that area was McCutcheon, which was destroyed before 1882. See: History of Ohio Falls 977.2 H62.

Information given by Mr. Robert W. Nagel, RR2, Box 17, Floyds Knobs, In 47119, November 17, 1980.

#36[illegible] SMITH CEMETERY **

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP

In Sec. 25

This cemetery seems to have many names. See also:

Leptic-Hollowell-Zahn Cemetery in Book A, p. 118

Mrs. Clay York, 2807 Diana Dr. N.A., whose mother was a Hollowell, states (1977) that this is another name for that cemetery and it was also named Brock Cemetery, (#52) because Michael Leptic married a Brock.

However, earlier maps show Elmer Smith Farm in Sec. 36 could have been the Brock Farm on the 1859 map.

Mr. Morris Taylor stated (1978) that he could never find the Brock or Smith cemetery.
